You will love all the great tips, quips, and good information!

Just in time for your resolutions to adopt healthier lifestyle habits, we are releasing our complimentary video series once again on Monday, January 9th! On that day you will receive an email giving you login access to all thirteen videos. Along with your login, you will also receive a link for a printable PDF; Healthy Recipes, Healthy Choices with all sorts of healthy recipes and food swaps from DeeDee and Kimberly. You are going to love it! In fact, this opportunity is so fantastic, be sure to pass this along to friends and family. They are going to love it too! 🙌

When we released this series last year, we gave you two of DeeDee's favorite recipes and here they are again ... homemade Hummus and Sherry Vinaigrette. Why buy hummus and salad dressing at the grocery filled with unnecessary and often inflammatory ingredients. Homemade is better and can be effortless too!

As a Subscriber to this complimentary series, you will have access to the video content for two weeks through Monday, January 23rd. Participants in the 30 Days to Effortless Entertaining workshops will have unlimited access as you do with all our workshop videos. We hope you will enjoy this added benefit!

We look forward to sharing this wonderful information with you knowing that you too will be inspired to embrace Wellness as we Welcome the people we love into our homes!
