Whether you're a reluctant host or a seasoned host, the 30 Days to Effortless Entertaining Workshop is for YOU! This is a great time to prepare for spring and summer gatherings.

Let's use these quiet months to get organized, take care of our homes and the areas where we entertain, and conquer all that's holding us back. If you're a more seasoned host, this is the perfect refresh.

This is a wonderful time to invest in yourself and in your home! When spring breaks, you'll be ready to throw open the doors and welcome the people you love!

I know many of you have questions ...

Why?

It's time to welcome the people we love into our homes and I want YOU to feel relaxed and excited, and most of all I want it to be FUN!

Maybe you tend to feel overwhelmed or stressed. Maybe you feel you've lost your touch. Perhaps you are a seasoned hostess looking for fresh ideas? Welcoming friends and family into our homes is more than serving a meal; it's an expression of love. The workshop will encourage you and equip you with new ideas and practical strategies that can be adapted to your personal style, all designed to inspire you to give the gift of gracious hospitality....effortlessly!

How?

All virtual. You can do this workshop no matter where you live. Women from CA, MA, NC, SC, GA, MD, FL, TX ... from all over have participated! On Mondays, you receive fantastic video content that you can watch at your convenience. I include a few fun and easy, but also incredibly useful short assignments. On Thursdays, we have a live session at 3:00 pm EST. If you miss the live session, we also record those so, you can also watch that at your convenience. If at any time you want to add one one-on-one time with me, that's also included!

Extras!

- You will also always have access to your workshop video content.
- You can always participate in any future 30 Days to Effortless Entertaining workshops at no additional charge.
- You will always have access to me for follow-up questions.

With the 30 Days to Effortless Entertaining workshop, I promise – yes, promise – you'll discover how to make entertaining easy instead of stressful, fun instead of fretful. If you're already at ease, you might want to refresh your style or strategies. This workshop is for you too!

I look forward to welcoming you into my home each week and am excited to spend this time with you. I know you'll be jumping up and down to host your next dinner party!

So, what are you waiting for ... let's get started! Sign up today!
